PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MADISON . . . The Department of Regulation and Licensing announced that the following disciplinary orders were issued in February 2004.

Peri Aldrich, Pulaski – Medicine and Surgery. The Medical Examining Board reprimanded Peri Aldrich and ordered 24 hours of education in assessment of chronic gastro-intestinal blood loss and indications of and screening for gastro-intestinal cancers. Aldrich failed to determine the cause of a patient's chronic GI blood loss and anemia. Aldrich was also ordered to pay $2,100 in costs. [LS0402181MED]

Lawrence Brauer, Milwaukee – Certified General Appraiser. The Real Estate Appraisers Board accepted the voluntary surrender of Lawrence Brauer's license and certification. On a renewal application, Brauer certified that he completed the continuing education requirements needed to renew his certification. As a result of a random audit, it was discovered that Brauer only completed half of the education hours required. [LS0402111APP]

Paul Deangelis, Jr., Muskego – Certified Residential Appraiser. The Real Estate Appraisers Board ordered Paul Deangelis, Jr. to complete certain education and pay $500 in costs. Deangelis performed an appraisal of a property that contained description errors such as incorrect and inaccurate information, spelling errors, and incorrect footage calculations. [LS0402112APP]

Paul Egge, Wisconsin Rapids – Physician and Surgeon. The Medical Examining Board reprimanded Paul Egge and required him to complete continuing education. Egge failed to order an immediate endoscopy of a patient to determine the cause of the probable upper-GI bleed. The patient's condition was life threatening to the extent that the patient declined endoscopy because she lacked health insurance, the chart does not reflect that the patient was fully informed about the seriousness of her condition. Egge was also ordered to pay $950 in costs. [LS0312172MED]

Phillip Epping, Neillsville – Land Surveyor. The Land Surveyor Section of the Examining Board of Architects, Landscape Architects, Professional Engineers, and Designers reprimanded Phillip Epping for failing to carefully determine the position of the boundaries of the parcel he was hired to survey. Instead of surveying and marking off 30 acres, the survey marked off 40 acres. The clients relied on and were led to believe that the "extra" 10 acres was part of the property they were purchasing. Ronnie Lockett, Milwaukee – Barber and Cosmetology Manager. The Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board ordered Ronnie Lockett, manager of Changing Faces, an establishment in Milwaukee, to pay a forfeiture of $1,000 and costs of $1,500. Changing Faces provided barbering and cosmetology services for several months in 2001 when it did not have a current barbering and cosmetology establishment license. During October and November 2001, 3 employees were found to be providing services without a license. [LS0307101BAC]

John W. Nauman, Grafton – Licensed Appraiser. The Real Estate Appraisers Board accepted the voluntary surrender of John Nauman's license. On a renewal application, Nauman certified that he completed the continuing education requirements needed to renew his license. As a result of a random audit, it was discovered that Nauman did not complete all the education hours required. [LS0402113APP]

Tyrone Perron, West Allis – Pharmacist. The Pharmacy Examining Board indefinitely suspended the license of Tyrone Perron and ordered $250 in costs. Perron was driving his personal automobile when another driver angered him. As a result, Perron pulled up next to the car and shot a pellet gun at the driver's side window causing the other driver to be struck in the face with glass shards. The other driver, a Milwaukee Police Detective, notified authorities. When Perron was apprehended, police found knives in his boots, a pellet gun and an expandable police baton in the passenger compartment, and a pistol in the trunk. Perron stated to authorities that he has anger management problems. As a condition to lifting the suspension, Perron must undergo a mental health assessment which shall provide proof acceptable to the Board that Perron does not suffer from any psychological or psychiatric condition which impairs his ability to practice as a pharmacist. [LS0402111PHM]

Annie Tran, Pewaukee – Manicurist. The Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board ordered Annie Tran, owner of Nails Spa Plus, an establishment located in Pewaukee, to pay a $3,450 forfeiture and $550 in costs. During an inspection of the establishment 3 employees were found providing manicuring services without a current manicuring license, a common acrylic powder bowl and a common liquid polymer bowl were being used on multiple clients, disposable manicuring equipment was not being disposed of properly, and the pedicure bowls were not being properly sanitized. [LS0402021BAC]

All orders are based on an agreement unless otherwise noted. For a copy of any of the above orders, call Kelly Niesen (608) 267-7215. The complete text of orders is available at the Department's website:
